BALLARD FAMILY HISTORY-2026

Preface

1996

We have attempted to bring our ancestral line up to the present time. We have copied information from the "BALLARD HISTORY 1635-1935" (Blue Book) and have continued from there. The data regarding marriages, births and deaths in this book is obtained from "THE BALLARD HISTORY 1935-1957" (Red Book) and as reported by family members to our historian. We apologize for any erroneous data and please feel free to notify us of such.

A special thank you to Florence Ballard, our family historian, for her record keeping of marriages, births and deaths; and then putting that information into its proper place in this book. Also thank you to family members who have assisted in compiling this information.

The 1996 Committee:
Mary Ellen Dalton Tomeo
Clarence Ballard
Floyd Cole

BALLARD FAMILY HISTORY-2026

Ballard Family History

In starting this, our family history and genealogy, we have thought it wise to begin at our common ancestor, William Ballard, who was baptized at Salford Priors, Warwickshire, England, August 12, 1603.

He registered as a passenger from England for New England as is found in Hottem's "Original Lists" that "William Ballard, husbandman, ae.32 with Mary his wife, ae. 26, Hester ae. 2 and John ae. 1, came in the "James" July 1635 landing in Boston. Research into the information related to his wife indicates that his wife's name was Elizabeth and not Mary.

Although called a "husbandman," i.e. a farmer, he must have been a man above the ordinary in education and ability, for the general court of Massachusetts Bay appointed him a magistrate "in roome of Captain Turner" in the session held at Newtowne (now Cambridge) June 8, 1638. He was made a freeman of the colony May 2, 1638.

He first settled in Saugus, now Lynn, and had 60 acres of land situated on the Boston Road on the west side of Saugus River. The court assigned various duties to him, one of these being to serve on a committee to establish the line between Salem and Lynn. Their report was made March 13, 1638. They must have had labor troubles in those early days as he was arrested for hiring laborers illegally. His name is on the list with others but he was "discharged Dec. 4, 1638 as he had hired none but such as had lots." He had a suit in court in 1637 and was a jury man in 1638. He died early in 1639.

He had no written will but told two of his neighbors, Nicholas Brown and Gerard Spencer, Jr. a day or two before his death that he wished "half of his estate to go to his wife and the rest to go to his children," and this his nuncupative will was proven upon their testimony and the court appointed "Mr. Timothy Tomlins to act with Mr. Hawthorne" as magistrate, June 6, 1639.

His first wife, Mary, who came with him (or Elizabeth) and whom he married in England, must have died a short time after he came here, as he married a second wife, Elizabeth Lee, who survived him. After William's death, Elizabeth married William Knight of Salem in 1640 whom she outlived. Knight bequeathed to her and her children, "the four children I had by my last wife, Elizabeth" and made bequests also to John and Nathaniel Ballard† of 40 shillings each without saying that they were her children or why he remembered them but when the executor paid them their legacies, they receipted for them as coming from their father-in-law (stepfather, as we now say), William Knight.

Elizabeth married third time Jan. 28, 1656, Allen Bread (Breed.)

The Town of Reading was formed from a district of Lynn, and William Ballard had lands there. In the earliest records of Reading now extant (the 6th of the 11th month 1644) a division of land is recorded thus "To Samuel Dutton half of the Meadow that was given to Goodman Knight and Mr. Ballard's children that is Goodman Knight's part."

10. Nathaniel d. Oct. 8, 1733.

BALLARD FAMILY HISTORY-2026

William (3) Ballard/Ballord, son of Nathaniel (2), son of William (1) was born in Lynn, Mass. April 23, 1686. He married Sarah, daughter of John and Ann Burrill April 11, 1713. She died about 1720. He married Oct. 17, 1721 Deborah Tobey Ivory, b. 1686 or 1689. He died in Framingham, Mass. Oct. 8, 1771 in his 86th year and is buried in Simpson-Jones Burial Ground, Ashland MA.

He had by his first wife two children:

1. William
2. Samuel born in Boston 1718. d. Mar. 5, 1793

He had by his second wife, Deborah Ivory, ten children:

3. Mary b. July 27, 1722
4. Nathaniel b. July 17, 1723; d. Aug. 8, 1767
5. Ebenezer b. Aug. 30, 1724
6. Stephen b. Mar. 4, 1725; d. before Nov. 12, 1767
7. John b. Aug. 28, 1727; d. before Feb. 18, 1800
8. Esther b. Jan 17, 1729; d. in Framingham, Mass.
9. Timothy b. Mar. 21, 1730-twin-soldier in Revolution
10. Zaccheus b. Mar. 21, 1730-twin VETERAN; died April, 1800 in Thompson, CT
11. Sylvanus b. Feb. 10, 1732
12. Joseph

Zaccheus (4) son of William (3), son of Nathaniel (2), son of William (1) and Deborah Ivory Ballard was born in Framingham, Middlesex County, Mass. Mar. 21, 1730.

With his twin brother Timothy, he changed the spelling of their name from Ballard to Ballord and many of his children followed his example.

His son Lynde, our ancestor, adopted this form but about 1825 the eldest son of Lynde, Rev. John Bates Ballard, chose to revert to the more ancient form and his ten brothers and sisters went with him as did their descendants. Esek, the second child and only son of Rev. John Bates Ballard clung to the latter spelling, "Ballord," as did his children.

Zaccheus was enrolled in Captain Henry Eames' Company of militia of Framingham April 26, 1757, Col. Joseph Buckminster's Regiment in the French & Indian War (1754-60). At the investment of Fort Wm. Henry, this regiment was quickly on the march for its relief. Tidings that the French did not follow up their advantage, they were ordered home. No other mention of their services in this war was found. Certainly, his experience did not prevent him from taking part in the Revolutionary War.

Zaccheus, our Revolutionary ancestor, married in Hopkinton, Mass. 1758 Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Gooch) Valentine.

She was born in Hopkinton, Mass. May 18, 1739. She survived him and married for second husband, Jonathan Ellis of Thompson. She died March 26, 1807 and is buried in West Thompson cemetery.

Thomas Valentine was a son of John and Mary (Lynde) Valentine. Mary Lynde was a granddaughter of Sir Charles Hobby who was knighted at Windsor Castle in 1705 by Queen Anne for his "eminent services rendered in New England," where he commanded a Massachusetts regiment at the siege of Port Royal, Nova Scotia. He later became vice governor of Annapolis City, N.S. His portrait in his official robes was painted by Sir Peter Lely in 1705 and hangs in the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston. Owing to illness at the expiration of his governorship in Nova Scotia he returned to Boston where he revived and was at one time commander of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company. He died in London, England 1714.

In other lines Elizabeth Valentine Ballord was a descendant from the Gooch, Newdigate and other prominent Boston families.

After about ten years' residence in Framingham, where his farm was adjacent to Shephard's Mills, Zaccheus moved to Leicester, Mass. In 1775 he bought the Crafts Davis farm in Oxford, Mass. This farm was the original homestead lot No. 40 of Oxford's first town plot. It was in the southerly section of the town of Oxford which was contiguous to the Connecticut boundary line (this area is now the town of Webster).

In 1785 he moved his family to Thompson, Windham County, Conn. where he died in April, 1800. He is our Revolutionary ancestor and served thirty-nine months in the Revolutionary War. He went from Oxford to Boston at the call of Lexington and later enlisted in the 4th Mass. from Oxford. His name is third in the list of the Published Records in Boston. He was with Washington at Valley Forge, (Valley Forge records – Capt. Thomas Fish Co.). He is buried in the Bates Cemetery near Bates Grove. A boulder marks his resting place, erected there by his great grandson, Esek Steere Ballard, of Davenport, Iowa, in 1901. Previously there had been a small headstone, with the name almost obliterated

Zaccheus and Elizabeth Valentine Ballard had nine children:

1. Elizabeth Gooch b. Framingham, Mass., May 20, 1759, married Hezekiah Stone, and died Mar.29, 1825; had nine children
2. William b. Framingham, Mass., Oct.26,1761, d. 1791 Vt.
3. Sarah b. Framingham, Mass., Jan. 5, 1764 married Micaiah Robinson, and died July 16,1802, Alger Cemetery, Hume, NY; had ten children
4. Mary†, b. Framingham, Mass., Aug. 8, 1765 married Nathaniel Carrill (Carroll); died Nov 26, 1823. She is buried in West Thompson Cemetery and he is in East Thompson Cemetery. They had nine children.
5. Mehitabel b. Framingham, Mass., May 31,1767 married Obadiah Bates. She died Mar 5, 1821 in Essex Ctr., VT. He died March 5, 1821 Essex Ctr. Vermont.

Up to this point we have traced one branch only of our family tree (our own) in each generation. From this point, (the Lynde Ballard descendants), we shall endeavor to trace each branch to the present time.

We are also tracing some of the descendants of Mary Ballard, Daughter of Zaccheus and Elizabeth and sister of Lynde.

These descendants all settled in the area of Thompson, CT, and have attended Ballard Reunions over the years for several generations.

1 - John Bates Ballard

JOHN BATES BALLARD

First child of Lynde and Polly (Bates) Ballard was born in Dudley (now Webster, Mass.), Oct.25,1795. He attended the village school and worked for his father on the farm until he was twenty years old. He then taught school, out West, as it was then called, in New York state, until he acquired sufficient funds to warrant his taking a course of study at the Baptist Theological Seminary at Hamilton, New York.

He graduated in 1823 and was ordained a Baptist minister that same year, at Masonville, N.Y. Two years later he received a call to preach in Dudley (now Webster) Mass. The Baptist church now standing in Webster is the successor of the one in which he preached. The one he preached in is now the south end of the old Slater's store. He started the first Sunday School ever held in Webster.

He moved from Webster to Bloomfield, Conn., and became agent for the American Sunday School Union of Philadelphia and succeeded in establishing a Sunday School in many towns in North Carolina and Kentucky. He married May 18, 1824 Augusta Maria Gilman, daughter of John and Rachel Gilman. She was born in Gilmanton, N.H. June 26, 1804 and died in Colchester, Conn, May 17, 1890. He died in New York City Jan.29,1856. Buried Linwood Cemetery, Colchester, CT

They had four children:

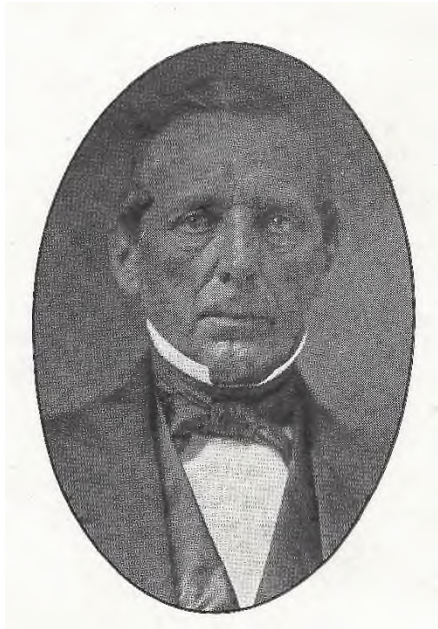

Frances Maria Ballard

Esek Steere Ballard

Mary Caroline Ballard

Katherine Augusta Ballard

NOTE: Some of this family line spelled the name Ballord instead of Ballard.

Reverend John Bates Ballard house, purchased 1840. It stayed in the family until 1908. It is now the Colchester Historical Society Museum.

1 - John Bates Ballard

1. Frances Maria Ballard, first child of John and Augusta Gilman Ballard

m. Sept. 4, 1862, Frances Augusta Webb, Davenport, Iowa. She died Sept. 4, 1917 in Davenport

Esek received most of his education in Colchester, Conn. where he was a student in Bacon Academy, thence to Hartford, Conn. where he trained as a druggist. From there he went to New York City where he became an apothecary for two years for a charitable institution.

He then went to Cleveland, Ohio and then on to Davenport, Iowa where he formed a co-partnership with a Mr. Taylor under the name of Taylor and Ballard, Druggists. Upon the retirement of Mr. Taylor, the name was changed to E.S. Ballard. He remained in this business in Davenport, Iowa, forty-five years without change of location.

During this time John W. Ballard, his cousin, was taken into the business and the name changed to E.S. Ballard & Co. and upon the retirement of Esek, John W. and his son Harry W. took it over under the name of The Ballard Drug & Dental Co.

Esek married Sept. 4, 1862 Frances Augusta, daughter of Zwrah and Orinda Webb. She was a descendant of Henry Adams of Braintree and Quincy, Mass. who was the ancestor of the presidents John and John Quincy Adams, also Samuel Adams. She became a member of the Society of the Mayflower and Colonial Dames through her descent from Governor William Bradford and John Alden.

4 - Winthrop Hilton Ballard

WINTHROP HILTON BALLARD

Fourth child of Lynde and Polly Ballard was born March 8, 1801, Dudley, MA. He died August 2, 1894, Thompson, CT. He married Abigail Holmes on Nov. 10, 1825. Abigail was born Aug. 15, 1803. She died Jan. 16, 1830, Thompson, CT. He attended district school and began to teach in the same school when he was nineteen and continued teaching in various district schools for nineteen years, teaching winters and working on different farms during the summer. While teaching in Thompson he is said to have boasted that he got the highest wages ever paid to a teacher in that town, thirteen dollars a month, boarding around. He also said that during the summer months he received a higher wage than almost anyone else because he was good milker. He went "out west" where he taught school in New York state, carrying all his worldly possessions in a bag over his back. This bag, a home spun, is still in existence. During one summer he walked from Chautauqua, N.Y. where he had been teaching, along the government road which was a road made by cutting trees and felling them each way on the right and left out through Ohio and as far west as Chicago which at that time was composed of a "fine spring of water and eight houses." The only incident he ever related in regard to this trip was "how the dogs did bark at me as I passed along." While always a religious man and a regular attendant at church and Sunday School he never joined a church until after he was eighty years old. He was baptized in the French River at the east end of the bridge in West Thompson.

He married for his 1st wife Abigail, daughter of Stephen and Lucy Holmes. They are both buried in the Holmes cemetery (now Tourtellotte Cemetery), Wiltonville CT.

They had one child:
Horatio Nelson Ballard

For his 2nd wife Winthrop Hilton married Salome (Joslin) Alton, widow of Benjamin Alton. She was a great-grand-daughter of Zaccheus Ballard and sister to Achsah, Valentine Ballard's wife (Valentine was Winthrop Hilton's brother).

They had three children:

b. April 9, 1841, Thompson, CT

d. Dec. 23, 1913, Thompson, CT

m. Jan. 1, 1863, Sarah Day Barber. She was born Mar 26, 1839 and died May 20, 1909.

Stephen received his education in the public school and at Parker Academy. He taught school in Thompson and in 1861 went to South Orange, N.J. where he was principal of the South Orange Academy. His wife Sarah is the daughter of William and Azubah Spalding Barber of Thompson. At the close of the Civil War, Stephen returned to Thompson and took over the homestead, as his father did not feel equal to carrying it on. Stephen lived on it until a few years before his death, when he sold it to his younger son, Winthrop.

m. Sept. 20, 1893, Carrie Etta Clark. She was born March 9, 1866, Webster, MA.

She died June 6, 1955 Putnam, CT.

Newton attended the public school in Thompson and afterward taught in Thompson for six years when he entered the Slater Woolen Company's store at Webster, Mass. as sales manager of the Furniture Department. After four years he resigned and entered the employ of L. Barnes & Son as sales manager of their store where he remained three years. At this time, October 1897, he formed a co-partnership with his brother-in-law, Mr. Arthur M. Clark and together they bought out the J.E. Taylor Corp. store at Putnam, CT where they remained for twelve years (Ballard & Clark Store). Mr. Clark sold his half of the business to Mr. Ballard who continued alone for ten years when he sold to A. Gilman & Company in 1919, reserving the undertaking part. This he sold Sept. 1, 1934 to Carl E. Weeks. His undertaker records are available at the Aspinock Historical Society in Putnam. Newton married Carrie Etta Clark, daughter of Otis and Mary Ann Wallis Clark of East Thompson, CT. Newton created the Ballard Genealogy Charts, 1938.

Frank loved trains but never worked for the railroad. His daughter Alice joined him in his love of trains and railroads. The train on Frank's stone is called "The Pequot", also known as the "Number 10" along the Norwich and Worcester Railroad, built about 1875 according to an article by Bernie DuPont (Karen (DuPont) Beck's paternal uncle), Worcester Telegram, May 29, 1983. On Alice's stone is Number 6, Sandy River & Rangeley Lakes, which eventually became the No. 9, located today at the WW&F Railway Museum. This is the engine that was at their home.

Frank and Alice also shot many home movies and photographs of trains. Some of the footage was used in the film, "Nine Lives of No. 9". Frank's lifetime collection of train memorabilia, photographs and movies is housed in the museum at the Tourtellotte Memorial High School by the Thompson Historical Society.

Alice is a legend in the town of Thompson for fighting the federal government when they took her property to build the West Thompson Dam. She was allowed to spend her remaining lifetime in her home. She was also a town historian and our family historian. Frank and Alice's gravestones are located at West Thompson Cemetery CT.

When John was seventeen years old, he taught school at Brandy Hill and the following spring went to Davenport, Iowa, where he entered the employ of E.S. Ballard, his cousin, a druggist. He took a course in Pharmacy in New York City in 1868 and graduated in 1870, the leader in his class, taking a cash prize offered for the student passing the highest examination.

Returning to Davenport he entered the firm of E.S. Ballard as junior partner under the firm name of E.S. Ballard & Co. Upon the retirement of E.S. Ballard, John and his son Harry W. took over the business under the firm name of Ballard Drug & Dental Company. He was in the drug business in Davenport over fifty years until his death June 9, 1926.

More information about the families in Davenport, Iowa, is available from Mary Ellen (Dalton) Tomeo, family historian. This includes John's story in his letters about his trip across country in 1888.

SALOME CARROLL JOSLIN & 1ST HUSBAND BENJAMIN ALTON

Winthrop Hilton Ballard married for his second wife Salome (Joslin) Alton, the widow of Benjamin Alton whom she married March 30, 1828. He was born March 11, 1800. He died in Thompson, CT, November 11, 1835. He is buried in Joslin Cemetery, Thompson.

Salome's maiden name was Salome Carroll Joslin, and she was a great granddaughter of Zaccheus Ballard. She had three children by this first marriage. Owing to the age of these children at the time of Mr. Alton's death, Erastus, the oldest, being seven, Ann Jane at five, and Frances at four, she was compelled to "bind them out" i.e. place them in other families to be supported.

Erastus was placed with Deacon Welcome B. Joslin (Salome's cousin), Ann Jane was placed with Harvey Davis and his wife, Sophia (Salome's sister). Harriet Frances, she kept with her. They were supposed to work for their living until they were sixteen years old or older. The people with whom they were placed were to send them to school the winter term and give them one new suit of clothes each year. Salome was able to have contact with them as they all lived locally in Thompson. All of their descendants are regular attendees at our Ballard Reunions.

m. 2nd Oct 29, 1873, Emma Jane Nichols. She was born April 22, 1844, Holden, MA and died Jan 1, 1914 in Webster, MA.

Erastus &
Emma

Erastus stayed with Deacon Joslin and attended the winter term of the "Little Pond" school until he was seventeen years old and then went to Boston where he obtained work. While in Boston he took advantage of the Public Library to educate himself. Five years later he returned to Webster and entered the employ of William Shumway selling books. Later he became manager of the Sovereigns of Industry Store. In 1877 he retired from business, having accumulated a comfortable fortune, and bought a large farm in Dudley, MA which he managed until his death April 27, 1898, and where his son Herbert lived.

Erastus had three children with his 1st wife Ann Shumway.

Mrs. Emma Nichols, second wife of Erastus Alton, had one child at the time of her marriage. Maud would have been five years old when her mother married Erastus. At the time of her own marriage, Maud lists Erastus as her step-father. Apparently, she was accepted into the Ballard family fold when in 1905 she was made the Historian for the Ballard Reunion. She writes “I felt sure the Ballards had made a grave mistake, and forgotten entirely that it did make a difference as to who was the man behind the gun, and that you had entrusted a good deal to the hands of one not having the advantage of being a full-blooded Ballard not even a half-breed.” She went on to write of ancestors, grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins and visits to the ancestors’ gravesites and home sites. Concluding with “I am glad that it was my privilege to meet with you at your first reunion in 1888.”

ZACCHEUS BALLARD

Tenth child of Lynde

Third child of Lynde and Amy C. (Green) Ballard

b. January 21, 1822, Thompson, CT

d. September 24, 1897, West Thompson, CT

m. November 26, 1823, Mary Ann Whitney. She was born March 2, 1823, Petersham MA. She died Oct 10, 1900, Putnam, CT. Zaccheus and Mary are buried in Grove Street Cemetery, Putnam CT, as are Frank and Noel. Amy is buried in the West Thompson Cemetery with her husband.

When he was eight years old, Zaccheus went to live with his half-brother, Valentine. He remained with Valentine until he was sixteen, when he became clerk at Hezekiah Olney's store, Thompson. He later worked for Vernon Styles in his livery stable where he acquired a knowledge of men and horses. He could recall the name and residence of almost every man he had ever met. Once he had driven a horse, he could recognize it whenever or wherever he met it afterwards. He used to go to Vermont every year and bring down a shipment of horses. He was widely known as a "horse dealer" never a "horse jockey." He had the faculty of knowing the truth about a horse and few farmers for miles around felt like buying a horse until "Uncle Zack" had "passed" on it. He was also a big success as an auctioneer, calling the highest bidder by name and residence.
